RE: Crystal City Multimodal Transportation Study; Updated Draft - October 2009

Date: October 16, 2009

The Crystal City Multimodal Transportation Study is now in an updated draft stage and the latest version is on the Crystal City Plan website (www.plancrystalcity.com). As a supporting document to the draft Crystal City Sector Plan (formerly titled Crystal City Vision Plan), the document is now more comprehensive and has been further refined. The following expanded and updated elements represent the primary changes since the previous draft:

Expanded Rail Transit Section (pages 24-26)

Transitway Evaluation is now in its own chapter (pages 27-38)

Revised Street Cross Sections (pages 53-62)

Updated Phasing Plans (page 63-72)

Revised Parking Section (pages 73-74)

Expanded TDM Section (page 75-77)

Report now has a Summary and Conclusion section (page 78-79)
